Inventory Sale

CONTINUES FRIDAY AND SATURDAY OR

AS LONG AS THE LOTS LAST

Our January books are closed, which means that purchases made remainder of month will appear on March statements.

Continuing our policy of monthly inventory sales to keep our stocks in the best possible condition, we will clear all odds and ends that naturally accumulate during a month in which the volume of business was as great as during January, at reductions which will move them out quickly. Those economically inclined will write their lists from the items below and attend this sale as early tomorrow as possible.
